Guests:

The purpose of this meeting was the exchange of information. The summary is as follows:

A. General Business [Sam Powell]:

1. Meeting was opened with a prayer.
2. Sam Powell discussed his trip to California and his visit to WWFA. Reverend Kurt Whellen, President of "WWFA", was described as a decent person, one that could be trusted, with our dealings. Installation of well borings, depending on depth, and local conditions, reliability, geological conditions and available maintenance, would cost between $4,000 and $12,000, with an average cost of $7,000. Rev. Kurt expects to be in Africa, during the month of May.
3. Copies of web-site information were distributed and discussed.

B. Joe Mazurek:

4. Discussed the status of the 501.c.3 application, prepared by "legalzoom".
5. Initial conversations were held regarding legal and financial representation.

C. BrotherLarry:

6. Discussed the concept of the Marketing Action Plan.
7. Discussed the Weebly website, which is the vehicle for creating the Malawi Farmers, Inc. website. Bro. Larry to obtain our "Malawi Farmers, Inc." domain. Bro. Larry presented his previous efforts on two websites that he prepared. Further discussions will be continued during the next several meetings.

Prepared by Joe Mazurek, May 20, 2016
